ROUND CACTUS FELT BASKET

Originally made by nomads of the Central Asian Steppes, felt rugs remained mostly unknown outside of the region until Dodd and Melina Raissnia built their own felt rug workshop in Iran. They created a modern collection of rugs based on Melina's work as a painter and graphic designer. This Peace Industry basket is made by hand from seconds and scraps in their San Francisco work room above the showroom. 100% lamb's wool and natural dyes.
